<< On the Grid in Birmingham

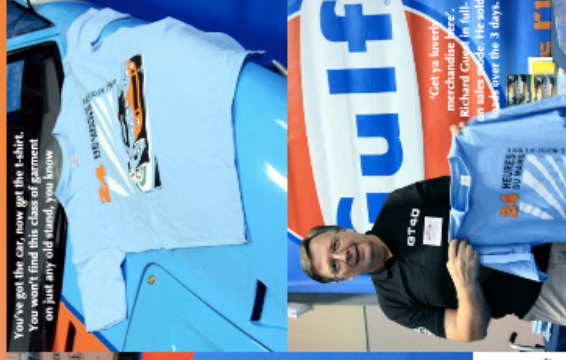

by Steve Dean

Hello, my name's Graham - I'm a racing driver. We called him Mr Turner as we were very honoured to have his machine in our midst.

Using the Gulf theme with the 917 as the centre-piece was a master stroke. For all 3 days the Club stand was a veritable hive of activity. There's no question that the show visitors just loved it. As for the other exhibitors, well we received loads of compliments, with many of them coming back every day to study the cars. As for Graham Turner, he was in constant demand to talk about the 917 all day long.

Amidst all the serious car talk there are always the humorous moments. It wasn't long before a member of the Great British Public asked if we were the 'Gulf Car Club' but the prize must surely go to the gentleman who very seriously asked, 'Were all these cars

You've got the car, now get the t-shirt. You won't find this class of garment on just any old stand, you know made by Porsche'. If ever he goes near Slough, the ground will surely open up and swallow him!

'Get ya lovely merchandise for in Richard Gulf's life while you can over the 3 days.

Given how popular our display was, you won't be surprised that we sold a fantastic number of t-shirts (Gulf-themed and high quality, thanks Dick). In fact we sold out of the medium size completely.

So, grab the calendar and put a big ring round 13th-15th November 2015. We would love to see you in Birmingham - we're already working on our next cunning plan!
